CLEAR BAG POLICY STRICTLY ENFORCED FOR THE 75TH ANNUAL MCDONALD'S MAGIC CITY CLASSIC PRESENTED BY COCA-COLA

Tightened security to be added around Legion Field

Birmingham, Ala. (Oct. 28) – The McDonald's Magic City Classic presented by Coca-Cola announced today that a strict security process has been implemented for the October 29th game at Legion Field. In addition to the normal security procedures provided by the City of Birmingham, a new clear bag policy will be in effect for fans attending the game. For a full list of approved and non-approved bags, visit www.magiccityclassic.com.

Upon entry into Legion Field game tickets will be scanned for authenticity. Each ticket has a unique barcode and can only be scanned one time. Once that barcode has been scanned, a duplicate ticket will not allow entry. Additionally, Legion Field has increased the police and security presence at all entry gates including band, team, and operations entrances.

To ensure that all fans have a safe and enjoyable visit to Legion Field Stadium, guests will not be permitted to bring the following items such as: weapons, umbrellas, purses and non-clear bags larger than 1" X 4.5" X 6.5", video cameras, cameras with a 12" lens or greater, drones or seat cushions with compartments. For a full list of prohibited items, visit www.magiccityclassic.com.

Prohibited items that are discovered during security inspections must be returned to the owner's vehicle or discarded. Violation of this policy will be subject to ejection without refund.
